A Reading of the Psalms - Psalm 25: 1-7

In you, Lord, God, I put my trust. I trust in you; do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me. No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame, but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause. Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long. Remember, Lord, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways; according to your love remember me, for you, Lord, are good.

Opening Prayer (in unison)

We greet you, God, with our many morning moods. Some of us could not wait to get here; some of us just made it. Some of us know exactly why we’ve come; others are not sure. Still, something calls to each of us, and we come to seek and to worship. We remember before you all that has made life good in recent days - the dear, daily love of family and friends, the satisfaction of work well done, the sweetness of a good night’s sleep, your presence with us when life has been hard. For any and all things which make us glad to be alive, we rejoice. And in our rejoicing we worship. Bless our time together. Amen.

An Affirmation of Faith (in unison)

We believe in God: who has created and is creating; who has come in the true man, Jesus, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by his Spirit. We trust him. He calls us to be in his church: to celebrate his presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Pastor Roger Mentzer's (shortened) Bio:

"My first appointment was as an Associate Pastor at Allison United Methodist Church at Dickinson College, back in Carlisle, where I was born. After 7 years, the Bishop appointed me to Christ U.M. Church in Waynesboro. There I served 8 years until I received a call from Bishop Felton May, who asked that I serve as District Superintendent of the York area. That is where I became further acquainted with Yorkshire UM Church.

Following my term as Superintendent, I was appointed to Bethlehem UM in Dallastown, where I served 20 years before retirement on June 30, 2021. Both of our children graduated from Dallastown Schools. Cathy, my wife, also served the school district, working in the Administrative Offices. She is still helping there, even though she retired in December of 2021.

I look forward to serving Yorkshire Church. I know that there are interesting days ahead, as we walk together in this challenging times in United Methodism. I view our task as keeping the ship steady as we move forward together, following Jesus. We will pray, pray, pray, that God will reveal the pathway that our journey demands as servants of Christ."

Please join us in Welcoming Pastor Roger Mentzer on July 13th.
