The Call to Worship and Praise

We gather as brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ to praise you, O God, and to seek your will for our lives.

Interrupt our busyness and quiet our distractions that we might enter fully into your presence and find refreshment for the parched place of our souls. Amen

Our Prayer for Greater Discipleship

O Lord, my God, it seems that my daily paths are so often comfortable and well-worn. The edges of the walkway have grown gray with constant use. My daily speech is a collection of old words spoken too often simply because I am comfortable with them. But I find that when you come to us you are ever-new. And I find myself challenged to put the old, comfortable ways behind me to embrace newness of life. So, wrap my heart with love anew. Keep me ever flexible that I may be nimble to be reformed by your Holy Spirit. Set my feet on fresh paths today and inspire me to speak words that give life and faith. Great wisdom to me and to us all, that we would help you give shape to what is new. Amen.

Dear Yorkshire Family,

I wish to share a word of thanks for the lovely reception held last Sunday as a sign of welcome for my wife Cathy and me. The refreshments were delicious and abundant. And the signs of welcome were sincere. Having begun the work, I am eager to find out what is next on the mission agenda of Yorkshire UMC as we follow Jesus together.
