Sanctuary Sunday School - Are you missing the Essential to a joyful, purpose-filled life? Has your faith lost its fire...or even its meaningfulness? Are you devoted to your church or your religion but still struggle with its practical relevance to daily life? Are you a good person, working hard, contributing to your community, yet find life is somehow incomplete and hollow at the core? Are you restless in your spirit, with a nagging sense that there just has to be something more? Anne Graham Lotz has known this struggle, too. As she searched for answers to her heart's yearning and emptiness, Abraham walked out of the pages of her Bible and into her life.

“Sometimes circumstances in life make it difficult for men to be all God wants them to be. But Tony Evans urges men to stop looking at their circumstances as excuses and instead to see them as challenges and opportunities for success. Study book ($20) will be available and a new topic each week. Doughnuts and coffee will be provided! The Men at the Sixes Bible Study meets on Wednesdays at 6:00 am in the Fellowship Hall.

Join us as brothers in Christ. For more information, please contact:

Calling All Golfers - Each spring and summer, a group of Yorkshire golfers (and some golfers from other churches) play 9-oles of non-competitive golf on either a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday evening each week. We meet around 5:00-5:15 pm and play 9-holes at one of several golf courses in the York area. All interested golfers should contact Frank Herron at 717-877-3792 or at fherron@comcast.net to get on the email list. Attendance each week is NOT mandatory. Play on the weeks that you are available. The email notice of upcoming golfing outings will be sent to everyone on the list. All you need to do is RSVP your attendance each week that you can attend.

Be still, my soul:

The Lord is on thy side.

•Kim in Kenya - knaubkimberly@gmail.com
•Rebecca in the Dominican Republic - singerrj1@gmail.com

Just a reminder...
With many people and groups using our facility daily, just a few friendly reminders for using the Church:
• Please remember to make sure all lights are off.
• Make sure all outside doors are locked.
• Please make sure there is no running water.
• Most important... Enjoy our Church!

National Night
Yorkshire Church and JNCP will be out at National Night out on August 5th.
We will have info available about the Preschool, our Church and Climb programs. We will have supplies for the kids to make beaded friendship bracelets.
This activity is popular, so it brings lots of people to our table and gives the adults time to chat with us and ask any questions.
Please feel free to stop by and help at the table!

"May August bring you calm days, warm hearts, and quiet strength. May every sunrise remind you of new beginnings and every sunset bring peace."

Dear Yorkshire Friends,

Every one of us has a unique life message and mission that is grounded in our unique gifts, experiences, and passions. The work that God would do through us is dependent upon our commitment to answering some very important questions.

1. What will be the center of my life? Career? Possessions? Pleasure or Popularity? I would like to encourage you to put away those options. They don't work. God is the only suitable center, for like the hub of a wheel, God holds all things together in proper balance. Proverbs 9:10 says, "Knowing God results in every other kind of understanding." When you understand who God is, you are going to learn who you are and why God put you here.

2. What will be the character of my life? God is more interested in what you are than what you do. What kind of character do you think God wishes for you? Paul writes: "From the very beginning God decided that those who came to him... should become like his Son." God wants us to learn to think like Jesus, to talk like Jesus, and to act like Jesus. And when we do, here is the promised character: "Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." (Galatians 5) Let's face life with that kind of character.

3. What will be the contribution of my life? What are you doing with your time, treasure, and talent? How are you giving back? You make a living by what you get, but you make a life by what you give. Abundant living comes from abundant giving. Too often, that truth escapes us.

4. What will be the communication of my life? God has something to say to the world through you. What will be your life message? We are in possession of the good news of Jesus Christ. That is one thing we must communicate. Each of us has been given unique experiences out of which our life's message is told. God does not waste our hurts and tragedies; each one becomes part of a new life message that we can tell.

5. What will be the community of my life? There are over 50 "one another" sayings in the New Testament. "Love one another; serve one another," etc. These must be done in community. The Christian life is not meant to be lived alone. We are to connect to the fellowship of the church, and of a small group. Our fellowship there will thrust us into the wider community around us. It must be that way.

Take time to think about these questions. Write down your answers. Then you will sense how to accomplish your mission and communicate your message. Remember: What matters at the end of life is not what others say about you – though I would rather be thought of as a person who made a difference. What really matters is what God is going to say about you. I want to hear him say to every one of us, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Better Disciples, More Disciples,
Yours in Christ's love, Pastor Roger
