The Call to Prayer

- Leader: The voice of God is calling over the waters:
“Beloved, receive the Holy Spirit.”
- People: The Son of God is calling through our baptism:
“Beloved, be born of water and the Spirit.”
- Leader: The Spirit of God is calling as gently as a descending dove. The God of glory is thundering as wildly as the sea.
- People: The voice of God is calling over the waters:
“Beloved, receive the Holy Spirit.” Praise God for the gift of life and the linking of our lives with one another.

The Prayer of Invocation (based on Psalm 23)

Spirit of God, call us once again, that we might become a city on a hill. Like our Lord, our message cannot be hidden.

We are led beside still waters.

We are fed at a huge banquet table.

We are accompanied through valleys of shadow and death.

We are guided to do justice and righteousness.

We are anointed, blessed and filled.

Goodness and mercy follow us, and we are grateful.

Our Prayer of Confession

Redeeming God, you bring life out of dead ends, and hope in the midst of despair. Forgive us for doubting that you are still at work even in the darkest hour, even in the most painful moments. Forgive us for our hesitant action, our cautious compassion, our too-frequent reluctance. Redeeming God, teach us a stillness that leads to acts of kindness and clarity of vision. Shape in us a trust that leads to faithful witness and bold compassion. From us in your love that loosens our worry and eases our anger. Make us true disciples filled with love, and committed to share, serve, and care, just like Jesus. Amen.

AMERICA

Yorkshire would like to start a Wednesday evening Bible study that would be open to men, women and couples.

We can all use some mid-week study and rejuvenation.

I would like meet for an hour or so of fellowship for anyone interested in an evening Bible Study.

Please contact John Remsen at johnremsen@verizon.net or call 717-755-2700 if you have any question.

Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the son of man to be glorified.”
